

Common Human Resource Information Standards

Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier

Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier is the Uniformed Service unique identifier for the military unit to which a DoD Military Service member is permanently assigned.

Permitted Values

Reference Element : Air Force Personnel Accounting System
 Reference Element : Army Unit Identifier Code
 Reference Element : Marine Corps Reporting Unit Code
 Reference Element : Navy Unit Identifier Code

Structural Business Rules

A Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Member Permanent Military Unit Arrival Date and one associated Member Permanent Military Unit Assignment Reason.

A Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Member Permanent Military Unit Departure Date upon completion of the permanent assignment.

A Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Military Unit Identifier.

A DoD Military Service member may have only one Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier for each permanent assignment.

A DoD Military Service member inherits a Military Unit Name, Military Unit Address, and Military Unit

Geographic Location through an association between the Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier / Member Temporary Military Unit Identifier and Military Unit Identifier.

Member CONUS Cost of Living Allowance Amount must have an associated Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier.

Member OCONUS Cost of Living Allowance Amount must have an associated Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier.

Member Overseas Housing Allowance Rent Amount must have an associated Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier.

Reference Documents

DoDI 1120.11, Para. 5.2.1.1
 DoDI 1120.11, Para. 5.2.2.2

PII	Owner	Steward
No	OSD P&R	OSD P&R IM