

Common Human Resource Information Standards

Military Unit Identifier

Military Unit Identifier is the Uniformed Service unique value that identifies a unit within a DoD Military Service's force structure.

Permitted Values

Reference Element : Air Force Personnel Accounting System
 Reference Element : Army Unit Identifier Code
 Reference Element : Marine Corps Reporting Unit Code
 Reference Element : Navy Unit Identifier Code

Structural Business Rules

A Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Organization Unique Identifier.

A Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Military Unit Identifier.

A Member Temporary Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Military Unit Identifier.

A Military Position Identifier must have an associated Military Unit Identifier when designating the composition of billets authorized for a military unit.

A Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Military Unit Name, Military Unit Geographic Location, Military Unit Address, and Military Unit Activation Date at a time.

A Military Unit Identifier must have only one associated Military Unit Deactivation Date, upon a unit being removed from a DoD Military Service's force structure.

A DoD Military Service member inherits a Military Unit Name, Military Unit Address, and Military Unit\ Geographic Location through an association between the Member Permanent Military Unit Identifier / Member Temporary Military Unit Identifier and Military Unit Identifier.

Reference Documents

DoDM 8260.03-M-V1, Encl. 3, Para. 9f

| PII | Owner | Steward |
|-----|---------|------------|
| No | OSD P&R | OSD P&R IM |